

Please join us for a Presentation on
The Gaspar de Portolá Expedition of 1769

To commemorate the 250th anniversary of Portolá's discovery of San Francisco Bay

Presented by: Carmen Blair
Deputy Director of the San Mateo County Historical Association

Portolá Expedition, painting by Fred Sinclair, Jr., 1981.
Depicts expedition traveling through the Crystal Springs Valley.
Permission is granted to use this image to publicize this presentation by
San Mateo County Historical Association

Date and Time: Saturday, June 15th from 1:00 – 2:00

Please Respond by Monday, June 10th to Dee Eva at dee@deeva.com or 650-368-4800.

About the presenter: Carmen is involved with school programs, public programs for adults and children, exhibit design and publications. Blair serves on the American Association of State and Local History National Awards Committee. She received her B.A. in History from Gustavus Adolphus College and her M.A. in Museum Studies from San Francisco State University.

Location: San Mateo History Museum 2200 Broadway, Redwood City, Upstairs in Court Room A. (The old court house where Sandra Day O'Connor got her start!)

<https://historysmc.org/courtrooma>

Sponsored by
The Gaspar de Portolá Chapter of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution

There is limited on-street paid parking near the Museum. There is free parking on Saturdays at the County Garage at the corner of Middlefield and Veterans Blvd. For paid general parking, use the Jefferson Parking Garage 830 Jefferson Ave or the Marshall Street Garage at 750 Marshall Street.

