PRESS RELEASE

August 2, 2019

CANINES HANG TEN (ACTUALLY, TWENTY) AT WORLD DOG SURFING CHAMPIONSHIPS IN PACIFICA ON SATURDAY, AUGUST 3, 2019 AT LINDA MAR BEACH IN PACIFICA, CA

Dog surfers and their human pals are invited to join the fun and bring home the gold

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (Pacifica, CA) – The World Dog Surfing Championships take place on Saturday, August 3, 2019 at Linda Mar Beach, Highway One and Linda Mar Blvd in Pacifica, CA 94044 from 9am – 2pm.

The Norcal Dog Surfing event & World Championships for Dog Surfing take place on the Northern California coast -- where the concept for the sport originated -- bringing together the best in local and international dog surfing talent. This is the premier dog surfing event in Northern California and the San Francisco Bay Area. The dog surfers are invited to bring home the gold for charity. During the event there will be a number of activities including Surfing Competition & Exhibition, Dog Adoptions, Partner tents and activities and more. Attendance at the event is free and is open to the public; in addition, the Surf Dog Village is open to the public.

The Norcal World Dog Surfing event celebrates the best in the sport. A schedule of events, the official list of heats in the competition and a map of the Surf Dog Village on Linda Mar Beach in Pacifica, CA are posted on the World Dog Surfing Championships website at:
